The Venezuela Affair. The Washington correspondent of the New York Press says it did not need Ambassedor Bayard's statement that Lord Salisbury's demand upon Venezuela for reparation, was quite outside his mis-slop on the Venezuelan boundary question to confirm the report that the Cleve, land Administration would follow the same cowardly course in this case as it did in the Nicataguan incident. The un-American representative of the United States at the Court of St. James has been so hasty in assuring Great Britain that it could impose humiliating obligations on Verlezuela without the alightest fear of interference from his Govern-ment that it is evident he is in a panic-for fear the attitude of the United States might be construed as inimical to Great Britain's policy of conquest.

The ugly tone of the British news papers shows that the view ertertained by the London Morning Post, that the United States will not fight in behalf of enezuela, is believed firmly, and the significant prediction that the American attitude will be the same as it was with regard to Nicaragua shows how com-

Duriraven Replies to Telegram.
Landon, Oct. 22.—Lard Dunravel has replied to the telegram sent to him resterday by Mr. Lauis H. Moore, the London munager of the United press, in regard to the interview furnished by Mr. Dixon Kemp, the anthenticity of which has been questioned. His hordship says he has had several conversations with Mr. Kemp since his return from the United States but more of these occasions did he say anything for publication. If Mr. Kemp, he adds, made use of any remarks I made to him by publishing them or put forward any views as being mine, it was untirely unauthorized and without my knowledge, than ever. The display of seditions placards has been resumed and it is reported that several prominent Softus and mobinessons who have been conspicuous in opposition to the Liberal morement have mysteriously disappeared. The authorities have decided upon taking rigid allighty measures to suppress the Libral element. Cardinal to Visit Rome, lon, Oct. 23.—The Standard says

The Pope has communicated to several Cardinals another letter to the English Cardinals another letter to the Emglish people regarding their return to the church of Rome. It is believed that the objections urged against the former letter will be combatted with studied noderation, that explanations will be given and that all concessions possible will be unade by His Holiness.

The Pope has invited to visit Rome in the next few. months several Italian and foreign cardinals to consult bon various questions. It is felieved he is preparing the way for an ecumenical council to pronounce upon the question of his temporal power as an article of faither.

The sudden death of Mr. Samuel Cur. ry, an old resident of Calas wis an nounced at an early hour Wedne day morning He has been slowly growing more feeble since the Silverstone fire at which time he received severe injuries, but has bravely borne the heat and bur book at your druggists and | den of the day without murmuring and Actu without complaint, manifesting a tru t ful and contented spirit at all times. He had no enemies all were friends and he has departed at the age of seventy years the full time alloited to man to his re ward. He was about town the evening before and retired in his usual health, but on arising in the morning he fell while taking a plass of water and nassed away without a struggle He will be much missed in his home where he leaves two daughters Mrs F S Davis and Miss Coal on hand and can sell Jessie Curry, a son Mr George Curry by the and a brother Mr James Curry

Dr Slegert's Angostura Bitters, the most effi acious stimulant to excite the appietite, keeps the digestive organs in order Why Latin is Used Doubtless many Bangor people have wondered why prescriptions are not written in English by physicians instead of using a dead language. The following from an exchange gives some good reasons and probably the article will be found nearly as interesting as though we had written it in our own in imitable style

> A druggist was asked by the man can t write his prescriptions in English The drugglat smiled and said "lou've got the same idea most people have lou think, I suppose, that the doctor writes his prescription in I atin so it can't be

Commander Beal announced that Guide I uther W Minnigh, the celebrated lecturer on the battle of Gettysburg, would heture in this city at the Hall on De cember 6 h and 7th On the 6th the lec ture will be in the evening and on the 7th in the afte noon for children The lecto es which will be finely illustrated with many stereopticon views, will be instructive and interesting and will doubtless be largely attended

They will describe the great three days struggle at Gettysburg positions of the armies resignation of Gen Hocker. Lee s last efforts, l'achett s division al most achihilated, and many other incl dents of the famous battle. As the lecturer is thoroughly familiar with his subject a treat may be expected by the Bangor public upon that occasion

Mr. Hiland I Fairbanks, of this city who has been coach ng the High School team, left last night for the University of Mississippi to coach the eleven there. He has been of great assistance to the High School boys who fully appreciate his excellent coaching and very much his excellent coaching and very much to have him leave.
